

Because our Presbytery desires to strengthen the journeys of our members within the Kingdom of God, and with complete recognition that we are wrapped in God's mercy, we ask each person to pursue to these disciplines with energy, intelligence, imagination and love:

- Reflect daily on Scripture
- Pray daily for the congregation you serve, your colleagues, the denomination, and the church.
- Worship regularly with your Presbytery and/or community of brothers and sisters.
- Explore issues of faith and life that are central to ministry, including the church's confessions.
- Meet frequently for prayer, discussion of readings, and reflection on theological, pastoral and ministry issues.
- Support other pastors and sessions with prayer and communication.
- Seek opportunities to serve within and outside your congregation.
